VFW DEPARTMENT OF NEVADA

CODE OF ETHICS POLICY

The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), Department of Nevada is a non-profit organization under the laws of the State of Nevada. VFW members, affiliated organizations (including posts), and the general public look to the VFW Department of Nevada to provide strong leadership on veteran's issues and to develop and to implement effective programs to promote patriotism, community service, youth development and a strong national defense. In order to fulfill those important responsibilities, the department must maintain a reputation that is above reproach.

In order to sustain the organization's reputation and assure its continued success, officers, council members and employees, as well as members put in leadership positions (e.g. committee chairman and other appointees), are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner and in accordance with the admonition in the Ritual to live lives of stainless integrity. To maintain the trust and confidence of the members, persons who donate to the organization and the public, the officers, council members, employees and others in leadership positions must adhere to the highest standards of honesty, integrity and professional conduct, and comply with the Code of Ethics.

This policy of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Nevada is intended to foster an environment that promotes ethical conduct in carrying out the mission of the organization by its leaders, volunteers and employees.

CODE OF ETHICS

Officers, council members, employees, and other persons in leadership positions in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Nevada shall be governed by the department's Code of Ethics.

PERSONAL CONDUCT AND PROFESSIONAL INTEGRITY

All officers, council members, employees, and other persons in leadership positions shall:

- 1 Display personal integrity, avoid misrepresentation and always be honest with others;
- 2 Act in a professional manner at all times;
- 3 Promote an environment where honesty and open communication are valued;
- 4 Resolve differences of opinion in a professional and mature manner;
- 5 Respect the confidentiality of privileged information;
- 6 Not engage in or tolerate any form of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, gender, marital status, religion, sexual orientation, and political beliefs, and harassment toward members, employees, volunteers or other officers;
- 7 Exhibit respect and fairness toward all people;
- 8 Speak highly of the organization and its members; and
- 9 Promote the VFW and support the activities of the organization.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Members and donors have placed their trust in the leadership of the organization to use funds to best fulfill the mission of the VFW. The officers, council members, employees and others in leadership positions shall:

- 1 Refrain from using VFW's resources for any purpose that does not benefit the organization;
- 2 Ensure that travel, entertainment and related expenses that are incurred on behalf of the VFW are for the benefit of the organization and not for personal gain or interests;
- 3 Make objective and informed decisions concerning the proper use of funds or assets of the organization; and

- 4 Regard the assets of the organization with the same consideration and same care as personal assets when making decisions.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

To avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest which would tarnish the image of the organization, no one serving as an officer, council member, employee, or in any leadership position shall take personal advantage of his or her leadership role by allowing a situation to exist that is, or may be perceived to be, a conflict of interest. All officers, council members, employees and others in leadership positions must:

- 1 Make all decisions based upon the best interests of the VFW;
- 2 Refrain from the use of VFW resources for personal gain;
- 3 Timely disclose any direct or indirect relationship with a person, or interest in a business or other entity, that may benefit from a decision in which they have a vote or over which they have an ability to influence;
- 4 Refrain from influencing the selection of vendors who are relatives, personal friends or persons who are affiliated with, employ or are employed by, a person with whom such officer, employee or other person in a leadership position has a personal or professional relationship;
- 5 Avoid any conduct that could directly or indirectly benefit the officer, employee or other person in a leadership position and refrain from using such positions, directly or indirectly, for private gain or to advance personal interest or that of any family member, personal friend or other person with whom a personal relationship exists;
- 6 Decline any extravagant gift, travel, entertainment, gratuity, favor or extraordinary discounts on merchandise in the performance of VFW duties from anyone, and, under no circumstances, should any of the aforementioned affect business decisions*; and
- 7 Avoid any situation that may have an appearance of a conflict of interest.

*Any officer, council member or staff member who questions the appropriateness of the gift, travel, entertainment, favors or discounts must disclose it to the Department Commander and Quartermaster.

CODE OF ETHICS ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have received and read the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of Nevada Code of Ethics. I understand that I am responsible for adhering to the principles and standards of this Code. I confirm that I will conduct myself in accordance with the principles and standards of the Code.
